NEW CITY HALL BEGINS TO RISE.—Salem's new $239,995 City Hall at the corner of E. Pershing st. and Broadway is rapidly taking shape as workmen lay red brick for the outer shell of the edifice. Simultaneously, tile brick is being laid for the inner walls. The building is expected to be completed in about five months. Upon completion open house will be held, along with official ceremonies for the setting of a bronze plaque in the vestibule to dedicate the city's new headquarters which will house the police station, fire department and mayor's office.

Crew Escapes Plane Explosion

Ammunition Ship Piles Up In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 5—(AP)—A twin engine Marine transport plane crashed in heavy fog near here last night and virtually disintegrated after all six crew members sprinted to safety. Loaded with secret explosives, the C-46 was coming in for an instrument landing when power failure killed one engine. The craft plummeted earthward on its belly in a muddy field just east of Tinker Air Force base.

The dead engine burst into flames as the crew scrambled for cover. Within seconds the flames touched off an explosion that shook the countryside for miles around.

Maj. L. W. Wright, Tinker public information officer, said the craft was coming in for a fuel stop enroute from Cherry Point, N. C., to Moffit Field, Calif.

The violent explosions and fire flashes attracted thousands of Oklahoma City residents from their beds to the scene before road blocks could be set up.

With explosions continuing for three hours, fire fighters did not attempt to come near. Newsmen, photographers and spectators were held behind ropes. Maj. Wright said no pictures—not even by the air force—would be taken.

Crew members, who escaped with only a severe jolting, were not allowed to talk with newsmen. Wright would not divulge the nature of the cargo except to say that it was ammunition.

Army, Navy Moves To Build Up Strength

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5—(AP)—The Army is calling 62,000 enlisted reserves to active duty in September and October.

The Navy is adding 12 months to the enlistments of those on active duty or in its reserves.

President Truman has asked Congress for another $950,000,000 worth of naval planes.

And some congressmen are demanding that Japanese and Germans be armed to defend themselves against possible Communist attacks.

These were among yesterday's developments in America's program of rebuilding its armed strength.

The army call was limited to enlisted men who are not in regular reserve units. The order called for 21 months of duty. The army didn't say, but presumably the reserves will go with units which already have been called up.

As for the navy enlisted men, the Navy said its order applies to regular and naval reserves except one-year enlistees who came in under the Selective Service act.

Miller Resigns As Basketball Coach

The basketball coaching job at Salem High was vacated this morning when Robert Miller, coach for the past six years, informed Supt. of Schools E. S. Kerr that he desired to be relieved of his duties.

Miller said he intends to remain at Salem High in the capacity of a teacher. He gave as his reason for quitting the post "criticism among basketball fans about his coaching services."

The question of Miller's successor will be brought up Monday evening at the August meeting of the board of education. According to a statement issued today by Mr. Kerr, the position will be given to a man on the present teaching staff.

Kerr's statement: "Because of some criticism among basketball fans about his coaching services, Robert Miller asked to be relieved of coaching basketball for the coming school year. Mr. Miller expressed appreciation for the solid support he has received from the board of education, the school administration, the teachers and pupils during his six years as basketball coach."

"Mr. Miller came from East Palestine to Salem in 1944 during the difficult war years. He wishes both the basketball team and his successor the best of luck."

"As superintendent of schools, I wish to point out that Mr. Miller's asking to be relieved of coaching does not create a vacancy on the high school teaching staff. He plans to continue his regular classroom teaching work. As things stand now, the coaching of high school basketball will be assigned to some members of the present teaching staff."

During his tenure as coach of the Quakers, Miller compiled a record of 79 wins and 39 losses, a 67 percent mark. His outstanding seasons were 1944-45 (won 17, lost 4), 1945-46 (won 13, lost 9) and won the district championship, and 1946-47 (won 17, lost 2).

He had one losing season in 1948-49, when his team won only seven of 20 games.

While coaching at Salem, Miller tutored several of the finest players ever to appear on the local court. Bob Payer, Walter Brian, Charles Schaeffer, Francis Lanney and Tony Martinelli were a few. The team coming up this season is comprised of 14 seniors, all of whom were on the varsity squad last year.

His successor will have to be chosen from among the present staff, unless some vacancy can be found or created. Several coaches, anticipating today's action, have applied for the Salem job during the past few months.

Youngstown Man Killed In Auto-Bus Collision

CIRCLEVILLE, Aug. 5—(AP)—A Lakeshore System bus and an automobile collided head-on two miles north of Circleville on U. S. Rt. 23 last night, killing a Youngstown man.

The victim was Walter R. Pope, 63, of Youngstown. His wife, Miriam, 57, and daughter, Catherine, 23, passengers in the car, were cut and bruised. They remained at Berger Hospital here.

Harry Walker, 51, of Stoutsville, O., driver of the bus, and the seven passengers aboard, all of Circleville, suffered minor cuts and bruises. All were treated at the hospital and released.

Russia Holds Veto Threat Over Council

Malik Still Demands
U. N. Recognize Communist China

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 5—(AP)—Russia climaxed maneuvers designed to keep the Security Council from condemning North Korean aggression by threatening Friday to veto any decision taken without Communist China and North Korea present.

Soviet Delegate Jakob A. Malik, who ended a seven-month boycott of the United Nations to take over the council presidency Aug. 1, introduced a resolution calling for a cease-fire, the withdrawal of foreign (American) troops, and the presence of the two Asiatic communist states at the council's deliberations.

U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin assailed Malik's move as "irregular conduct."

Malik has fought a delaying, procedural action since he returned to the council Tuesday to prevent a debate and vote on a U. S. resolution condemning North Korean aggression and asking members to help localize the conflict.

Austin was joined by Britain's Sir Gladwyn Jebb in maintaining that only the U. N. — recognized republic of Korea (south Korea) belonged at the council table.

They made it clear that Russian proposals would be rejected by a majority when the council resumes its session next Tuesday, afternoon after a weekend rest.

The American representative told reporters after the meeting that the council "has a way to put a stop to these cunning devices of obstruction—the kind of under-the-shell now, under-that-shell then, game that is being played."

He did not say what it was.

Backs Red China

Russia's Malik has made no overt move so far, however, to set aside the council's decisions of June and July—made while he was absent—calling for a cease-fire, labelling Communist North Korea the aggressor and setting up a U. N. fighting force, flying the international body's flag, under command of Gen. MacArthur.

Malik has said only that the actions were illegal, a term he also applied to the defeats the council has given him since he was president.

He keeps coming back to one subject: Seating Red China some way in the council.

He was defeated 8-3 his first day back when he tried to rule the Chinese Nationalists should leave the council table.

He was able to get only four votes to support him when he tried to put the question of Red China's representation on the agenda.

Yesterday Malik said that any decisions on Korea must be made in the presence of all five permanent powers—including Russia and Red China—and that it is a question of what the U. N. calls substance, meaning it is subject to a veto.

Five Parking Meters Restored On State

Five of the seven parking meters were to be restored on State to the downtown thoroughfare. Restoring of the meters was agreed to by city council this week. Fourteen had originally been removed.

The meters restored today include four at the eastern end of the thoroughfare near Penn ave and one at the western end. The other two will be replaced at the western end as soon as new meter posts are set.

BITTER WORDS AND WAVING ARMS mark a violent exchange between Warren R. Austin, U. S. representative to the United Nations Security Council meeting at Lake Success, N. Y., and council chairman Jakob Malik of Soviet Russia. Malik calls the U. S. the "aggressor" in a "civil war between political groups in Korea." Austin indirectly pins guilt for the Korean attack on Russia.

Legion Begins 32nd Convention

Salem Band Seeks Ohio Championship

CLEVELAND, Aug. 5—(AP)—American Legionnaires of Ohio opened their 32nd annual convention today with the top order of business a proposed change in the election of officers.

In the past, they have been selected by a standing vote on the last day of the convention. But the rules and order of business committee now wants a secret ballot.

The delegates, expected to number up to 1,500, were to be asked to make this change today. If approved, the election will take place tomorrow with nominations in order immediately.

The convention committee will ask delegates to choose Columbus for next year's convention in preference to Cleveland or Cincinnati because of its more central location.

A resolution approving the Legion's national executive committee's action to seek no more veterans' benefits for the duration of the war emergency will be submitted to the convention.

The Massillon drum and bugle corps will defend its Ohio championship tonight in the annual convention contest at West Tech stadium. The Elyria corps, runner up last year, is the main challenger but groups from Wauseon and Anderson township (Cincinnati) also will be entered.

The Portage post band of Kent, Ohio Legion champions for four straight years, will compete again this afternoon with the Charles H. Carey post band of Salem as principal competitor.

Alliance Educator Protests Dismissal

CANTON, Aug. 5—Russell E. Schafer, superintendent of Alliance schools, took the stand in common pleas court late Friday afternoon to testify in his own behalf in the Alliance board's move to dismiss him.

In his testimony he stated that he attended a board meeting May 28 at which time he was asked for his resignation.

Attorneys for Mr. Schafer claim that Mr. Schafer was hired under a proper contract and is entitled to retain his job on that basis.

The school board contends that Mr. Schafer tendered his resignation from the post and that the board acted within its rights in dismissing him.

The hearing on the injunction was recessed Friday until Monday morning.

Noted Stunt Flier Killed In Zanesville

ZANESVILLE, Aug. 5—(AP)—Stunt flier Gene Griffin of Zanesville was killed last night when a wing tore loose from his light plane and his parachute failed to open.

The accident happened 100 feet in the air over Riverside airport, four miles north of Zanesville, where Griffin was manager and a flight instructor.

Griffin, 37 years old, had just taken off on a practice flight. The plane crashed and burned about 400 feet from the airport's administration building.

Griffin reportedly was the American champion light plane acrobat and the only flier in the United States to perfect the inverted Cuban figure eight.

In this maneuver, the plane, flying upside down, starts the figure eight at the middle. It completes an outside loop while climbing, returns to the starting point in an upside down position, is flipped over and completes an outside loop while diving, returning to the starting point.

Griffin was holder of the world's record for tailspins in a light plane, 128. He was a flight examiner for the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

His widow, Margaret, survives. They had no children.

Youngstown's Steel Plants At Capacity

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 5—(AP)—Youngstown district steel plants will operate next week at 106 percent of capacity in one of the most critical steel shortages since World War II.

Three Bessemer plants, 72 open hearths and 24 blast furnaces are operating. The only idle blast furnace is the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation's unit at the Ohio works. It is being repaired. The mills are operating about as high as is practical, and probably will for the rest of this year.

Fight Subsides On Control Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5—(AP)—A confused up-hill-down-dale wrangle over home-front mobilization subsided on both sides of Congress today, leaving prospects that President Truman eventually will get standby economic controls.

That seemed to be indicated, even though both the Senate banking committee and the full House, during a hectic week of debate on the issue, had rejected such proposals to give Mr. Truman wage-price controls and rationing powers for use when he sees fit.

Yesterday the senate group went full circle, throwing out an automatic controls plan it once had okayed, and adopting the standby proposal it had once rejected, once rejected. Then—right back where it started on Wednesday— it quit until next week.

The house also quit in a parliamentary tangle, after junking a once-approved proposal similar to the automatic plan considered by the senate committee.

Both the house and the senate committee got into the controls debate when they started consideration of Mr. Truman's request for limited economic powers, including curbs on credit and commodity speculation.

The administration bill didn't even mention price-wage-rationing controls, which the President has said are not necessary at this time.

But plenty of lawmakers brought the issue up, apparently spurred by the testimony of elder statesman Bernard Baruch that the nation would soon find itself in dangerous condition without such restrictions against inflation.

In the house, the issue produced four full days of confusion. The leadership finally called a temporary halt to the debate, and the house banking committee was expected to meet Monday in search of an acceptable compromise. The house itself is scheduled to take up the matter again Tuesday.

BANK PRESIDENT DIES

STEUBENVILLE, Aug. 5—Henry E. McFadden, 66, president of the National Exchange Bank and Trust Co. of Steubenville, died early today. He had been an employee of the bank for 36 years and was a former member of the American Bankers Association executive committee.

35th Regimental Combat team of the U. S. 25th division hurried back two attacks between Chinju and Muan with "heavy losses" Friday night. This is in the southern sector, where two previous Red attacks Thursday cost the North Koreans an estimated 1,200 casualties.

Elements of the 13th Red division were moving toward the southern front to join the First, Fourth and Sixth North Korean divisions, already identified.

Reds Move to South

Far to the south, the Reds were massing four crack divisions east of Chinju for the drive on Pusan, U. S. supply port only 35 miles away.

In the central sector American planes blasted a large enemy armored force one-half mile west of the Naktong. Associated Press Correspondent Leif Erickson said the U. S. planes launched out four of five tanks moving northward toward Waegwan and pounded Red artillery, trucks and troops. American artillery also hurled shells into the convoys.

The big Communist offensive, likely to hit at two or more points simultaneously, appeared at hand. A spokesman at General MacArthur's headquarters said that when the Reds began moving their forces in daylight on exposed roads it would signal the nearness of their offensive.

For the past few days they had demoralized their movements. Now they were coming into the open. General MacArthur's headquarters reported the sinking of a 10,000-ton North Korean transport at Incheon, the port of Seoul. Lt. Kenneth J. Appel of Milwaukee, pilot of a light bomber, was credited with a direct hit.

Advance Viewed As Threat To U. S. Defenses

Enemy Unopposed In New Gains; Allied
Planes Hit Railyards

TOKYO, Aug. 5—(AP)—North Korean forces rolled Saturday across the Naktong river.

The crossing was made without opposition near Sangju where South Korean forces under orders had withdrawn to new defensive positions.

The Eighth army said in a communique the crossing was made "east and southeast of Sangju." Sangju is near the northwest corner of the American defense box.

There was no word on the size of the force.

Farther to the east, the South Koreans withdrew on orders of Lt. Gen. Walton M. Walker, to Odam and Simhung, about five miles south of the Naktong River.

The crossing posed a third major threat to Allied defense forces. The Korean Reds were reported to have three divisions massed for a strike across the Naktong near Waegwan, south of Sangju and only 35 miles from the U. S. central communications center at Taegu.

Reds Move to South

Far to the south, the Reds were massing four crack divisions east of Chinju for the drive on Pusan, U. S. supply port only 35 miles away.

Appel of Milwaukee, pilot of a light bomber, was credited with a direct hit.

Rail Yards Bombed

B-25s blasted Seoul for the second straight day, leaving the railroad yards flaming and shrouded in smoke. The medium bombers plastered the rail center with 100 tons of bombs, 20 tons more than were dropped Friday.

The next big Communist drive was expected in the critical southern sector east of Chinju. There the Reds hurled four probing assaults Thursday and Friday but were repulsed with "heavy losses."

"The enemy may launch an attack east of Chinju today," the U. S. Eighth army said in a communique.

The Communists, evidently in some strength, were continuing to feel out the defenses east of Chinju. Although the Eighth army communique reported a "quiet" front Friday, a spokesman at General MacArthur's headquarters said:

The 35th regimental combat team of the U. S. 25th division hurried back two attacks between Chinju and Muan with "heavy losses" Friday night. This is in the southern sector, where two previous Red attacks Thursday cost the North Koreans an estimated 1,200 casualties.

Confident Living

By DR. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Making Your Dreams Come True

A GOOD FRIEND of mine is one of America's outstanding public speakers. He cannot possibly accept all the speaking engagements he is offered but, when he does speak, his audience is always held spellbound by his eloquence.

Few people know that this man, as a boy, could not utter a complete sentence. He stuttered so badly that he could not recite in school; instead, he wrote his lessons in a notebook on the blackboard. When he played with other boys, they would tease him in baseball games by calling him out when he was really safe. They wanted to hear him sputter. He knew exactly what he wanted to say, but the words just piled up below his throat and left him mute.

He became the butt of the unthinking childish cruelty of his friends. As a result, he was underweight, extremely nervous and vastly over-sensitive.

One Sunday afternoon, he went to a meeting at a Y.M.C.A. in Chicago to hear the late Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana. The Senator was one of the most famous orators of his day and, on that particular occasion, he was trying to teach the boys in his audience one of the greatest lessons of this life, how to have confidence in themselves.

"Until this very day," says my friend, "I can close my eyes and see the senator standing there with his finger pointed straight at me as he said, 'Young man, there isn't a thing in the world you can't do if you believe you can.'"

To this nervous, unhappy, stuttering lad in the audience that day, it seemed that the finger was pointed directly at him and that the words were meant especially for him. And, for the first time, he actually believed he might overcome the handicap that had made life so miserable for him.

That night, at home, he told his mother about the new hope that had been born within him. She was a very wise woman and, from her own experience, knew something of the heartbreak that comes from over-expectation, so she said gently: "Be patient, my son. If we have faith and never stop trying, some of our dreams are bound to come true."

THE BOY, deeply stirred, knelt by his bed that night with the first real feeling he had ever had that God understands. To his astonishment, when he started to pray out loud, he hardly stuttered at all. It was a tumultuous outpouring of his deep inner feelings, and he says, "I felt then, and I feel now, that my prayer went straight to the heart of God."

But no miracle happened to him. He still stuttered and the boys and girls still laughed at him. However, something inside him seemed to have changed. For on that day he stood up and recited in class, struggling hard and refusing to give up. He took courage because he seemed to hear the voice of the Senator saying, "Have faith," and the voice of his mother adding, "Be patient."

Then he happened to read about a great Greek orator named Demosthenes who was said to have overcome a speech impediment by speaking with pebbles in his mouth. For days after that, the boy stood on the windy shores of Lake Michigan, his mouth filled with small stones, trying to speak. He tried again and again, using fewer pebbles each day, falling on his knees in desperation and crying out, "Oh, God, please let me talk."

Spies, Traitors

By PETER EDSON

U. S. On Alert On Home Front

WASHINGTON—The Korean crisis finds the U. S. government in a better position to deal with Communist traitors and saboteurs than it was 10 years ago, when the home front menace was Japanese and Nazi sympathizers and spies.

Within 48 hours after Pearl Harbor, the Federal Bureau of Investigation had rounded up 2303 aliens—1291 Japanese, 865 Germans and 147 Italians. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover is not telling anyone what he would do if a similar emergency arose tomorrow. But Attorney General J. Howard McGrath says the FBI knows every Communist in the U. S. today.

Hoover has told Congress there are 54,000 card-carrying party members, and 10 times that many sympathizers. The House Un-American Activities Committee says it has files on a million subversives.

President Truman has again designated the FBI as the top government agency to deal with cases of treason and sabotage. And Director Hoover has made public these seven points on how the public can help the FBI in its job.

1. Telephone the nearest FBI office, whose number is listed in the front of every phone book.
2. Furnish all known facts.
3. Do not report mere gossip or rumors.
4. Don't circulate rumors.
5. Don't make private investigations, because witch-hunts and vigilantes weaken internal security.
6. Be alert.
7. Learn to recognize the camouflaged movements of the enemies of the American way of life.

One reason the Federal government is better equipped to deal with Communism than it was with Fascism is because the FBI is a bigger, stronger and better organization. It has had 10 years of additional experience. Its files are more complete.

A number of U. S. Communist cells have been broken. The Judy Coplan and Dr. Fuchs cases have revealed that there is a real—not an imaginary—Communist spy network.

The trial of the 11 top U. S. Communist officials has revealed evidence of conspiracy advocating overthrow of the U. S. form of government.

The courts have strengthened the power of the executive branch of government against Communist subversion. Harry Bridges and Alger Hiss have been convicted of perjury. U. S. Communist Party Secretary Eugene Dennis and many others have been jailed for contempt of Congress. The non-Communist oath provision of the Taft-Hartley law has been upheld by the Supreme Court.

The government loyalty program has separated more than 1000 government employees from Federal service, by firing or permitted resignation.

Several bills now before Congress could greatly strengthen the Justice Department's power over espionage, conspiracy and treason. So far, however, action has been completed on only three laws which aid the fight.

One permits certain government agencies to dismiss summarily and employ considered to risk to national security. The second provides a $10,000 fine for anyone revealing the contents of any U. S. secret code message. The third gives the President powers to search and control the movements of foreign flag vessels in U. S. ports.

Two other still more important measures have passed the House but are waiting Senate action.

The first is a new espionage law—long sought by the Department of Justice. It extends the statute of limitation from three to 10 years and double maximum penalty on conviction to $10,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment. This bill passed the House last March by a vote of 368 to 20.

The second is a bill which would permit the Department of Justice to imprison subversive or criminal aliens awaiting deportation. There are now some 3000 deportable aliens at large in the U. S. They can't be deported because the countries from which they came won't take them back.

Probably the most useful weapon which the government has in dealing with subversives is the broad authority given the President under the war powers acts.

Legally, the United States is still at war, under the declaration of Congress on Dec. 8, 1941. While some 200 special war powers were repealed in 1947, over 350 still remain on the books or could be re-instated by a new Presidential proclamation.

Under the war powers acts, the President may require the registration of aliens. He may restrict travel movements. And the penalties for violations of sabotage and espionage laws are much heavier in time of war than in time of peace.

Too Soon To Worry

By TRUMAN TWILL

IT is still too early for the forehead-wrinklers in Washington, D. C. to start worrying about the morale of our patriots. But give them time.

Sooner or later, an order will be sent down from on high to start tinkering with popular morale, with a view to improvement of same. This will be done according to a bureaucratic recipe which has been in use since the days of the Roman empire. It may be another thousand years before Washington tumbles to something that everybody outside of Washington has known since, well, Calvin Coolidge, let us say.

That is the fact the recipe is a dud. There never has been anything wrong with American morale in wartime that a good letting-alone by the psychological witch-doctors of Washington, D. C. couldn't have cleared up overnight. Most of them have meant well, and some of them have done no actual harm. But all of them have been on the wrong track.

They have been trying to needle the public into a state of hysteria, like a high-school football coach giving a team a pep talk before the big game. This has struck them as sound procedure because it reflected the low opinion of the American popular mind held by the ordinary run of governing officials.

The fact is that the public is not as dumb as its officials think it is. War is not a high-school football contest, but an ugly mess in which citizens get killed and kicked around. And it isn't the contestants who need needling but officials who feel called upon to use the needle because they can think of nothing more useful to do with their authority.

To get down to cases, so there won't be any guesswork about what is being driven at here, the American people don't need any moving picture cuties, especially male ones, to make the supreme sacrifice of sharing themselves with the common herd for the sake of morale this time—not unless the actors are actually willing to go the second mile and share the herd's hardships.

In fact, morale will be better on the whole if the ridiculous line of marlarky about notables sharing themselves with the hoi polloi is abandoned. For every impressionable gook who might want to give his life for cheese-cake, there is likely to be another thoughtful citizen who broods about wasting it in behalf of Mickey Rooney.

Moreover, let there be no official worrying about what we patriots are doing in our spare time, such as lifting our voices in song. Everybody has seen the gallant statistics for Washington, D. C. for the last war, and anything left over for the outlying districts wouldn't dilute the war effort perceptibly.

Also, in case it occurs again to some crossed-wires genius left over from the last fracas, it will do no good to cut the cuffs off men's pants or hold out their vests at no reduction in price. Careful search has revealed that not one kamikaze fighter or a single Hun was brought to his knees by that stunning stroke of sacrifice delivered in the name of home-front morale.

If the forehead-wrinklers will stick to important matters and not worry about us patriots and our morale, we will get along all right. We will do all the worrying that needs to be done; we will be worrying about the forehead-wrinklers. And that is a full-time worrying assignment.

"Meeting Will Come to Order to Discuss Peace"

U. S. Losing Propaganda War

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—The United States government going to wake up on the propaganda front, where the Soviets are administering defeat after defeat.

The fault does not lie in the "Voice of America" or in the machinery for distributing information but in the policy-makers here at the very top.

For Warren Austin, American ambassador to the United Nations, takes orders from the government here. He cannot speak a single word of policy without approval here in advance.

So the question again is why does the United States government stand indifferent to the facts of international life today? Why does the United States hesitate timidly, perhaps cravenly, to pronounce Soviet Russia the aggressor and disturber of world peace? Why is Russia allowed to sit in the U. N. without standing trial for her crimes of aggression?

THE ONLY ANSWER that has ever been whispered hereabout is that this might perhaps offend the Russians and make them mad and it might possibly mean war. This, however, is not the language of American statesmen. It is not the language of the men who have ventured forth under the American flag to assert American rights and to express American courage from the days the republic was founded.

President Truman must make the fateful decision about pronouncing Russia the aggressor. If he is waiting for his cabinet officers to tell him what to do, then he is not asserting his own leadership, which everyone who knows him is aware is not lacking in fortitude.

Has the President been impressed by the "fancy dans" of diplomacy who say it isn't dignified for the United States to express itself vehemently? Nor is it dignified perhaps to use flame throwers and bombs in Korea. It is the inexorable fact of America's survival which must be taken into consideration in these critical times and not some rule in the etiquette book of diplomacy.

The American people are restive. Every bit of evidence of the way public opinion is manifesting itself shows that the people are tired of being pushed around in the court of world opinion by Soviet propaganda and that they are beginning to resent not only the military unpreparedness of the administration but also its diplomatic frustration.

TOO OFTEN these matters are affected by personal aspects. Just yesterday Representative Priest, Democrat, of Tennessee, prodded by veteran groups who wanted to know where he stood on the eve of a primary election in which he was a candidate for renomination, said that he would use his influence to secure the resignation of Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of Defense Johnson. The President told his news conference that a memoir of the Democratic leadership in the house in which Mr. Priest holds the title of "assistant whip" should not have made such a statement and that, so long as Mr. Truman is in the White House, both of these cabinet officers would remain in office.

Whatever personal ties of devotion Mr. Truman may have toward his appointees, it was a mistake for him to underwrite the tenure of office of members of his cabinet that way. For Mr. Truman thereby opens himself up to the charge that personal sensitiveness or stubbornness would allow him to keep in office anyone when the best interests of the country in wartime might require changes.

There are many members of Congress—in the senate as well as the house—who think that new leadership in the Department of State and the Department of Defense would give the country a lift in morale that would be stimulating indeed. But they may or may not be right as to whether the country desires such removals.

Fot it may well be that this is merely the usual hysteria when it isn't easy to fix responsibility on the persons really to blame for our clumsiness and blunders.

CERTAINLY, however, there are signs that Mr. Truman himself is not as confident of the worth of the two cabinet secretaries as he used to be. Otherwise, it is asked, why did he create at the White House the office of "special assistant on foreign affairs" and appoint Averell Harriman to that job, which certainly is rather a novel substitute or supplement to the position of secretary of state.

Also it is being said that the recent formation of the joint board of secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force, under the chairmanship of Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, was a step approved by the President but that it was taken on the initiative of the three secretaries themselves. Could it be that Frank Pace is to be the new contact man at the White House on defense matters? Could it be that Mr. Truman plans to diminish gradually the influence of Secretaries Acheson and Johnson? It would seem incredible to accept that inference, but that's the impression these new steps are making.

What is more important than who heads these agencies and departments is the leadership the President himself exercises—and, so far as the propaganda front is concerned, it is falling down miserably because of failure to formulate promptly the top policies that are in themselves effective propaganda in behalf of the free nations.

In Korea

By HAL BOYLE

A Reporter's Observations

IN KOREA
LEAVES FROM a war reporter's notebook:
Some prisoners of war report that the Red army is beginning to use South Korean recruits to replace casualties in heavy fighting.

"These people (North Koreans) have been damn well trained," said Lt. Col. James W. Sone of Wilkes Barre, Pa. "If they now have to start using recruits from the south, that's a good sign for us."

He said the enemy artillery and mortar fire is very accurate and explained it this way:

"They have good observation. And a lot of their information comes from underground channels—from agents inside our lines."

A favorite trick of the Reds is to put a command post under fire to try to demoralize it as they infiltrate into American artillery positions. That leaves the Yank infantry without support—and the Reds then come streaming through.

How can they be stopped?

"We will have a stabilized line when a soldier in a hill position can look over five yards and say, 'hi, Joe' to another soldier. Then if we have proper reserves we can crack them back anywhere they get something through."

STAFF OFFICERS along the front are convinced that most of the atrocity stories about the conduct of Red troops are true.

"The guerrillas take no prisoners at all," one said. "The regular North Korean troops will take prisoners if they are able to march. But they won't fool around with wounded prisoners."

Those are shot or bayoneted, he added. One prisoner who escaped the Reds said their army seemed to be made up largely of battlewise noncoms and young Communist enthusiasts.

"These older noncoms aren't such bad Joes," he said. "They've been through combat before and know what it is like. They'll offer you a cigarette or give you a little first aid if you aren't too badly hurt."

But the young soldiers—some of them look 16 or under—are nothing but sadists. They get a kick out of murder."

DURING THE DAY when a U. S. division was locked with the Reds in the battle for Kuchang, correspondents saw a book on the desk of the commanding general.

Its title: "Tomorrow Will Be Better," a novel by Betty Smith.

"I haven't had a chance to look at it," said Maj. Gen. John Church Frederick, M.D., "but I like the sound of it."

In the division mess hall a hand-cranked phonograph blared with "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," and then "The Missouri Waltz."

ONE THING you notice about Korea is that it is a land of silent animals. They are as stoical as the people.

In ten days of driving about the countryside I have heard no bellowing, no cow low, no calf bleat, no pony whinny—and no dog bark. The dogs here are scraggly creatures that look mangy rather than starved. They appear completely indifferent to traffic and many have been run over because they refuse to leap out of the path of speeding army trucks or jeeps.

Occasionally one dog, more ambitious than the rest, will dart out and chase a vehicle. But he does so soundlessly as if he were hopping in a vacuum. He never barks.

But there's one friendly sound—the chirping of English sparrows so familiar on American streets in the horse and buggy days. These little ruffians are everywhere here. (AP Wirephotos)

Indians Collide With Steady Eddie Today

Vic Raschi Too Tough For Tribe

Bests Feller In 1-0 Mound Duel Friday

(By The Associated Press)
CASEY Stengel, chuckling again, tried to nail down No. 2 for his New York Yankees today by sending Ed Lopat against the Cleveland Indians.
He couldn't have picked a more likely pitcher. Lopat has defeated Cleveland four straight this year and his lifetime average against the Indians is an amazing 26-6. Early Wynn goes for Cleveland.
New York's 1 to 0 victory last night over the Indians—with Vic Raschi fashioning a masterful three-hitter—apparently was what Stengel needed to wipe out the memory of a three-straight lacing the Yankees took in Detroit.
"A great job," he chortled. "Raschi was really hot. That's the first one and we won't settle for less than two-out-of-three."
Cleveland Manager Lou Boudreau wasn't chortling but, always the optimist, he found solace in Bob Feller's performance.
"They both pitched great ball and that was a really rough one for Feller to lose," said Lou. "If Bob can keep going like that it will mean the world to us these last two months."

Feller did pitch a great game but Raschi was better. Bob allowed seven hits; Raschi, three. Bob struck out two; Raschi, eight; Bob walked three; Raschi, two.
And while Raschi let only five Indians reach first base and none touched second, Feller permitted the Yanks to score their big one in the fifth.
Raschi, in that inning, doubled and moved to third on Gene Woodling's single. When Phil Rizzuto attempted a squeeze bunt, Raschi was tagged out at the plate, but Woodling scored on Hank Bauer's single that bounced off Joe Gordon's glove into the outfield.

THE INDIANS, in order to insure themselves second place by tomorrow night, must win today's contest and the final game tomorrow with New York.
The biggest night baseball crowd anywhere this season—66,743—watched last night's game.

Robin Roberts looks like the Phillies' first 20-game winner since the good old days of Grover Cleveland Alexander.
Roberts, a 23-year-old lad from Michigan State, is driving the Phils toward another flag. With Curt Simmons heading off to war, a heavy burden rests on Roberts' shoulders. So far he has shown no signs of sagging.

Roberts hung up his 14th victory last night with a five-hitter against the St. Louis Cards, 4-2.
Granny Hamner tripled with two on in the eighth to score the tie-breaking runs. Del Ennis and Dick Sisler nicked Howie Pollet for singles with two out before Hamner came through.

The victory was most important for the Phils, opening a five-game set with the ever-dangerous Cardinals. Eddie Sawyer's hustling kind, winning 16 of their last 22 games, now boast a three-game lead over Boston.
Warren Spahn kept the Boston Braves in second place with his 14th win, a four-hitter over Chicago, 10-2.

BROOKLYN, like Boston, moving at a seven-out-of-eight pace, scorched Cincinnati, 7-1, for Don Newcombe's 11th win. Two doubles and a single by Pee Wee Reese plus a double and two singles by Carl Furillo led the attack off loser Ken Raffensberger.

Whitey Lockman's single with the bases loaded in the eighth helped the New York Giants edge Pittsburgh, 3-2, for their 11th win in 12 starts.
When Pittsburgh filled the bases with one out in the ninth, reliever Dave Kosslo made pinch hitter Ray Mueller hit into a game-ending double play.

After polishing off the Yankees three straight, Detroit ran into its usual Briggs stadium jinx with Washington, losing 5-2.

Bob Kuzava went the route for the first time since the All-Star game break despite sloppy fielding. He scattered 11 Detroit hits. Ted Gray's home run ball to Sam Mele with two men on in the third cost him the game. Gray lasted until the sixth inning when Washington scored two more.

Chico Carrasquel, hitting safely in his 23rd straight game, scored the winning run in the tenth inning for Chicago's 3-2 nod over Boston. Joe Erazut's single off reliever Mel Parnell told the story.

Sam Chapman hit a grand slam homer and Ferris Fain homered with two on for Philadelphia's 12-9 decision over St. Louis in their battle for the American League cellar.

THE wonderful, inspiring play by Salem's Junior Legion baseball team has earned that group of boys every honor the city can bestow upon them.

At this writing they are in the final round of the tournament, facing a tough Galion team. Whether they win or lose today, they've showed their ability to go under fire.

It being an American Legion project, we hope the Legion will pull out all stops in welcoming our representatives back home.

It's beginning to look as though our idols have feet of clay. Despite emphatic denials from the Indians' front office that the team has been stealing opposition pitching signs, almost irrefutable proof has appeared that they have—or at least did at one time.

Pittsburgh sources say that Eddie Bockman, former Tribe infielder and presently with the Pirates, admitted recently that he was assigned the task of caging the signals during 1948.

He sat in the scoreboard at Municipal Stadium and watched the enemy catcher make his signals through binoculars. The information was then relayed to the Tribe batters by an assistant.

Legion To Shoot The Works Today

Will Go All Out For Two Wins Over Galion

It was now or never this morning for the Salem nine as they went into the finals of the Ohio Junior Legion baseball tournament at Columbus.

All the work of a season hung on the outcome of today's games with undefeated Galion. Salem had to win two and Galion only one.

Bobby Coy, the lanky right-hander was to get Coach Chet Brautigam's nod as starting hurler this morning. If he won, Chet planned to come back with Bob Theiss, who has already pitched and won three games, this afternoon.

The Salem pitching in the tournament has been good. The team hitting has been even better. In all but one game, Salem has overpowered its opposition.

The arms of Coy and Theiss were given a going over Friday afternoon by members of the Ohio State coaching staff, in an effort to prepare them for their work today. Meanwhile, Jim Cosgarea, the husky catcher, was having a stove finger repaired. He had hit in Friday's 11-3 win over Portsmouth.

The hero in the Portsmouth win was Clair Weingart, Salem centerfielder, who belted five hits in six times at bat. Theiss pitched the game, allowing only one hit in seven frames. He fanned 11 batters, running his total for the tournament to 33. Norm Birkhimer took over in the eighth to rest Theiss, and he gave up four hits and all three runs.

In Salem, it doesn't look as though the team will get much of a welcome home tomorrow. The American Legion post members are attending their convention in Cleveland this weekend and have with them the post's Quaker City band.

Some talk was heard Friday in favor of taking the team to Cleveland and having it ride behind the parade. Nothing definite was learned, however.

In the event the afternoon game is played, results will not be known until about 6 p.m.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5—(AP)—Three major league managers came up with revised predictions today on the hot pennant races.

Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees said he figured the Cleveland Indians over Detroit as the toughest contender in the American League.

Burt Shotton of the Brooklyn Dodgers called Philadelphia the "team to beat" in the National while Pittsburgh's Billy Meyer termed it a three-team scramble among the Phillies, Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

Said Stengel: "Boudreau has a solid outfit with his regulars and good reserves. When Joe Gordon needed a rest they gave it to him. Now they tell me he's raised his average nearly 50 points in the last six weeks."

Fraley Eyes Rosen's Home Run Record

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 5—(UP)—Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

Al Rosen of the Cleveland Indians, the American League home run leader with 29 round trippers, needs only two more to tie Ted Williams' AL rookie record of 31 and nine more to deadlock the major league record of 38 set by the Braves' Wally Berger in 1930.

With four homer bulge on the idle Ted Williams and Walt Droppo, Rosen could be the first Indian ever to win the homer title. He also could be the first rookie ever to win the American League homer crown, The National League having two freshmen pace setters in Brooklyn's Harry Lumley, 1904, and Ralph Kiner, 1945.

If Rosen keeps going, the next question might be: How many will he hit in the world series.

Tomorrow would be a good time for Shirley Mae France to swim the English Channel. It's the 24th anniversary of Gertrude Ederle's successful swim. It was Aug. 6, 1926, when Miss Ederle negotiated the channel in 14 hours 34 minutes. Which is quite a swim, at that.

Hank Bauer of the New York Yankees might be a darkhorse for the American League batting championship, now that he's playing regularly. In 227 times at bat he's hitting .353. That's not enough ABs to be listed among the leaders, where George Kell sets the pace with a .351 mark. But with 56 games to go, Bauer could—and might—make the necessary 400 AB's to be the winner.

Burt Shotton, the Dodger manager, snubs his press box second guesses with the observation: "I'm still getting my paycheck every two weeks—and it's probably 10 times the size of the checks of those guys who criticize me." Which is one reason why Shotton is known as "lovable, kindly" Burt!

Bliss Wins 8-5 Over Sanitary

CIO Falls From Lead In Class A League

The almost invincible Bliss Cardinals continued their winning ways Friday night, rolling over the Sanitary 8-5 to record their 16th triumph of the year. The win boosted their league lead to four and a half games.

Wayne Russell allowed three hits as the Bliss club collected 19. Brian, Primm, Rance and Colet each had two safeties.

Mullins forfeited their game to the Electric Furnace dropping three games out of fourth place.

The CIO dropped out of first place in the A League, losing a 5-3 game to Butler Grange. Mercer, Butler hurler, gave the losers only five hits. Dermotta was touched for seven by Butler.

The loss put the Saxons a half game ahead of the CIO in first place.

Third place Terminal Tavern won its 12th game over Peoples Lumber by a 4-3 count. Pitching was about even in the game, but the Tavern team made their eighth hit count.

Schools To Get New Equipment

Bus Owners Agree Upon New Contract

LEETONIA, Aug. 5 — Through the rehabilitation program of the Ohio Department of Education, the local board of education will be able to provide a new cafeteria, cafeteria kitchen, five new home economics cooking units, blinds for the Northside building and a new heating arrangement at the South Side building.

Plans for the cafeteria and kitchen have been approved by the state department of education and work will be started immediately on the project to get into operation as soon as possible.

The home economics department's five new complete units are composed of stoves, cupboards, sinks and other equipment to enable five groups of students to work at five cooking projects simultaneously.

The hot-air furnace which is used at the South Side building as an auxiliary to the inadequate steam system will be discarded because of the expense for repair. The state will put up 50 to 60 percent of the cost of enlarging the present steam system which will provide adequate radiation for the entire building.

Owners of three privately owned school buses have agreed upon contracts for the ensuing year. The contracts will be signed when they meet with Supt. D. D. Rummell at a later date.

IN HONOR of Miss Inez Asher, bride-elect of Frank Lush, Misses Margaret Sherwood, Betsy Herr and Audrey Patterson entertained Thursday evening at the home of Miss Sherwood.

Miss Asher, who was presented a miscellaneous shower, and Mr. Lush will be married Aug. 27.

Ex-GI In Again After Three-Year Hitch Ends

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 5—(AP)—Military life moves rapidly for Robert Hawkins.

Not long ago he was mustered out of the army after three years of service. Now the ordinance company of which he is a member has been alerted for active duty.

Hawkins' principal gripe is "here I am being mustered in again and I haven't yet received my mustering out pay."

"WATER'S FINE, BUT IT CAN WAIT," four-year-old Johnny Zeek, of Coal Grove, O., seems to be telling his dad, Edward, as he applies the extra to admire certain aspects of the view on the beach at Bay Village. Who knows, maybe if he does his double somersault she'll cut the cosmetics and give him a tumble. The heart-throb is Judy Miller, four, of Rocky River.

Meat Price Decline Expected In Fall

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5—(AP)—The Agriculture Department expects prices of meat—particularly pork and the better grades of beef—to decline in the fall.

In a report on the livestock situation, the department said output of meat is now at the year's low level, but that it should increase considerably in the October-December quarter.

The prospective increase in supplies, the agency said, should pull prices down from current peaks, but not as low as a year ago.

The department said consumption of meat in the October-December quarter is expected to be up a little from the 37.3 pounds consumed on the average by Americans in the like quarter last year. But for 1950 as a whole, consumption is expected to average no more than last year's 144 pounds. This average, nevertheless, is about 18 pounds above the pre-World War II level.

JUDGE CLIPS BARBERS AKRON, Aug. 5—(AP)—You don't need a license to cut hair in Akron so long as you don't charge. Judge Thomas M. Powers in municipal court has freed Ira Spencer, 45, who had been charged by a state barber license inspector with clipping children's hair without charge. Said the judge, "It's getting so a man won't even be able to shave himself without a license."

Salem Man, 86, Has 2 Gardens

Like To Grow Things, Says Homer Reitzell

ANOTHER OF SALEM'S octogenarian gardeners is Homer Reitzell, 86, retired painter and decorator, of S. Ellsworth ave.

"I like to grow things," Mr. Reitzell said, and as an evidence that he follows this inclination he has two gardens, one of flowers and a few vegetables where he resides, and another all vegetable garden on Jennings ave. White and purple phlox predominate the flowers in his home garden.

Mr. Reitzell derives pleasure out of planting trees and giving them to friends. He has several black walnut trees in his yard and has planted more walnuts to grow more trees. "You can make a tree do most anything by the processing of pruning," Mr. Reitzell explains.

A life resident of Salem, Mr. Reitzell was born in the house at W. Pershing st and S. Ellsworth ave, now the Capel real estate office.

His father, Henry P. Reitzell, was one of the city's pioneer painters and plow makers. He painted in the summer and made plows in the winter. The wood part of the plow he hewed out of rough timber. He had the pattern for the metal castings and these were made at Salem's first foundry, which was located on what was then Foundry Hill, opposite the Famous Dairy building, E. Pershing and S. Lundy.

Mr. Reitzell recalls that there was a plowing mill at the dairy site in the early days and that a deep ravine ran through that section.

Polio Cases Show 137 Climb In Week

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5—(AP)—Acute poliomyelitis increased in the nation last week with 964 cases reported compared with 827 for the preceding week, the public health service said today.

The figures do not include Colorado, which had seven new cases the previous week.

For the calendar year, and for the current "disease" year, however, the nationwide total is below that of 1949 to date.

Thus far this year the 6,067 cases reported runs 1,135 less than the 8,202 cases to date last year. The cumulative total for the disease year, 4,947, is far less than the 7,289 reported to date in 1949, the highest on record.

Texas reported the largest number of new cases last week, 107 compared with 111 the preceding week. California has the next largest number of cases to date this year, 605 compared with 795 last year.

FALLS TO DEATH CINCINNATI, Aug. 5—James Mahon, 75, fell to his death last night from the Columbia Parkway viaduct.

Cohen, 36, was in Chicago only five days' but he said he would be glad to leave his home town. He expressed dissatisfaction at the brusque welcome by police who told him to "get out of Chicago—you're not wanted."

Police also called Cohen an "undesirable." Cohen, who has been the target of gang guns and bombs in Los Angeles, was held by police for more than 12 hours. With him in custody was John Stompanato, 34, his traveling companion. Both were released yesterday after police were unable to find any charge to place against them. Here an A.E.C. employee watches, via the TV screen, as an object almost a fifth of a mile away is handled by electronically operated arms. S. is "now under way" in the production of a hydrogen bomb and that progress has been made toward the development of atomic engines for use in both planes and submarines.

Probe Continued Into Boy's Death

EAST LIVERPOOL, Aug. 5—The Columbiana county coroner said today he was convinced another person was with 13-year-old David Brant, Jr., when he was strangled to death with a piece of clothesline.

It would have been impossible for the child to have killed himself without the knowledge of another, said Coroner Ernest R. Sturgis.

David's body was found Thursday night by his father in a narrow hillside cave near his home. The coroner first believed David died in a self-constructed rope trap.

But because of the position of the body, this could not have happened, he said.

Police found a visor cap similar to those worn by truck drivers, near the cave. On the front of the cap was an emblem of a winged wheel.

Police Chief L. J. Wise assigned several patrolmen to search a wooded area near the cave for possible clues to the death.
